INSTRUCTIONS: HOW TO APPLY

All application materials must be compiled in one PDF file:

1. Please save this cover page as a file with the primary applicants' name:
Lastname_Firstname.pdf
2. Create all other application materials as PDF files, and then compile them into this cover page file.
NOTE: For instructions on creating a single PDF from multiple files, please see: bit.ly/combine-pdf
3. Required application materials in addition to this cover page are:

A 2-3 page narrative including:

- A. A clear articulation of how you define Learn by Doing;
- B. A compelling case based on this definition for how your scholarship informs the value of Learn by Doing approaches to pedagogy;
- C. A description of the project that includes the methodology, objectives, theoretical justification, and significance of the project;
- D. Evidence of external review or validation (e.g. peer review, receipt of grant funding);
- E. Evidence of broader impacts (or statement of expected impacts, if recently published) of the scholarship. This may include page downloads, citations, altmetrics, reviews, and presentations, as well as continuation of grant funding, or reproduction or extension of the research.

The publication or other materials or products representing the completed work.

Depending on your discipline, this may include presentations, publications, refereed media, books, chapters, articles, images, video, etc.

A current curriculum vitae. In the case of a collaborative project, please provide CVs for all team members.
