

MYSTERIES OF WRITING: FORENSIC AUTHORSHIP ANALYSIS

A lecture by Prof. Patrick Juola

Monday, October 16

5 PM

Kennedy Library, 209
(Second Floor)

free, open to public limited seating

Professor Patrick Juola is an internationally noted expert in text analysis, security, forensics, and stylometry. As a faculty member at Duquesne University, he has authored two books and more than 100 scientific publications as well as generated millions of dollars in Federal research grant funding. As director of the Duquesne University EVL lab, he is the lead architect of the JGAAP project and provides overall scientific direction for Juola & Associates.

Sponsors

IATPP INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY AND PUBLIC POLICY

CALIFORNIA
CYBER TRAINING COMPLEX

CAL POLY
Robert E. Kennedy Library