Instructions: How to apply

1. Required application materials:

- Cover page
- A 2-3 page narrative including:
 - A. A clear articulation of how you define Learn by Doing;
 - B. A compelling case based on this definition for how your scholarship informs the value of Learn by Doing approaches to pedagogy;
 - C. A description of the project that includes a description of the methodology, objectives, theoretical justification, and significance of the project;
 - D. A statement of progress to date and a timeline of activities to project completion;
 - E. A statement of intellectual merit and expected impact of this research;
 - F. A description of how the findings will be used and disseminated.
- A current curriculum vitae for the primary researcher/applicant. In the case of a collaborative project, please provide CVs for all collaborators.
- Additional materials (optional). An unpublished manuscript, grant proposal, letter of support from a colleague or student familiar with the in-progress scholarship, or other materials representative of the scholarship may be submitted.

2. All application materials must be compiled and submitted as one PDF file:

- Please save this cover page as a file with the primary applicants' name:
Lastname_Firstname.pdf
- Create all other application materials as PDF files, and then compile them into this cover page file.
NOTE: For instructions on creating a single PDF from multiple files, please see: bit.ly/combine-pdf
- Upload your completed application to lib.calpoly.edu/faculty/learn-by-doing
